BRINK & CAMPMAN

Sanderson

Founded in 1860, Sanderson is renowned for its iconic florals and explosive botanicals, hand drawn and inspired by the quintessential English garden. From Arthur Sanderson's Soho Square showroom, where he began selling his unique style of wallpaper some 160 years ago, Sanderson has risen to become one of the most influential names in interior design. Resolutely British and proud holders of the Royal Warrant, Sanderson's wallpapers, fabrics, and paint are synonymous with English beauty, taken from nature and elevated through a discerning design eye.

Celebrate the exquisite detail of Sanderson's iconic portfolio, from enduring English blooms and statement florals to Eastern inspired designs, intricate trails and boldly stylised botanicals with this exquisitely crafted collection of hand-tufted rugs.

Complementing Sanderson's historic range of fabrics, wallpapers and paint, this delightful rug collection reflects the iconic beauty of Sanderson designs with a sumptuous touch.

FOREST OF DEAN

A magical interpretation of an age-old woodland scene, Forest of Dean, an embroidery in its original design, is a more whimsical take on the forest floor dwellers, revealing a naïve aesthetic of deer, ferns and butterflies. Here in rug form it has an almost Scandinavian quality, whilst still remaining firmly footed in the English countryside.
